Please briefly describe the subject(s) of interest and intended use of your research.

Opt- In:

- I authorize you to share my research interests and contact information listed above with others.
- You may not share the above information, but the Registrar may relay/forward other persons contact information/inquiries to me, with the understanding that I have no obligation to respond.
- The HMWF staff or Board may contact me as a potential subject matter expert translator of Japanese language material, if the need arises. Please list areas/eras of knowledge or expertise:

Other

- Personal belongings (coats/bag/other) must be stored in the adjacent, secure Board Room (when not in use) or a designated section of Research Room. The HMWF reserves the right to examine researcher belongings prior to exiting the research area.
- All food and beverage is to be stored in your vehicle or the staff kitchen (see Registrar if access is needed)
- Please wash and dry your hands prior to working with research materials and before returning to the Research Room from all breaks. Please do not apply any lotions or hand sanitizers after washing. At the discretion of the Registrar, gloves are not required in most cases. Gloves must be worn when handling photographs, artifacts, and artwork. The Registrar will alert you to this requirement if applicable, when materials are served. If in doubt or you encounter any of the aforementioned items, please consult the Registrar. Nitrile and cloth gloves are provided.
- Please advise the Registrar if you may need access to your cell phone during your research time. The HMWF reserves the right to restrict cell phone use in the Research Room.
- Researchers assume full responsibility for adherence to Copyright Law and liability for violations of that law.
- Patrons must comply with room closures to allow staff to attend to breaks or handling priority situations (this will be coordinated with you in advance, when possible).

Reproduction, Self-Capture, Use, and Publishing Requests

Reproductions, use of personal equipment to photograph/image collection material, and permissions/licensing to publish (including web use) are handled by a separate application form and are subject to review and approval. NOTE: The HMWF does not own the intellectual property rights to all the materials within the collection and may not be able to authorize its use. Fees may apply.

Allowable reproductions furnished by the HMWF will not be available the same day of your visit, but will be delivered electronically once ready.

I have read the HMWF Research Room Terms of Use and agree to abide by them.

I understand that failure to comply with these rules may result in denial of access to collection material.
