

UNDERSTANDING REVOLUTIONARY IDEALS

LESSONS FROM THE INCARCERATION OF JAPANESE AMERICANS AT HEART MOUNTAIN

The Heart Mountain Wyoming Foundation is dedicated to teaching the accurate history of the incarceration of more than 125,000 Japanese Americans during World War II and to historical developments that enabled it. We can provide multiple resources for educators from our website and other sources.

RESOURCES

Our exclusive podcast series

Our exclusive augmented reality tour

The Mineta-Simpson Institute

Facebook

YouTube

Twitter

