

Father: Fudatshi Bagbarn, 63, born in Japan, came to U.S. in about 1905. Mother: good, address, 2-1-10-B, Heart Mountain War Relocation Project, Heart Mountain, Wyoming. Received a common school education in Japan, speaks various English, has no religious affiliation, is a farmer by occupation, habits described as unrefined, no anti-social contacts indicated, no other marriages.

Subject: Fudai (Richard), 59, born in Japan, married in U.S., received grade school education in Japan, literate in English, only occupation that of housewife, no religious affiliation. Woman of socially approved habits, an efficient housewife, no known anti-social history, no other marriages.

Children: Subject is the youngest of 3 children.

1. Topic, Jr., single, born in Japan, now studying English, lives with parents
2. James, 30, single, 12th grade education, formerly a farmer, now an farm laborer at Wells Falls, Washington.
3. Subject.

Parental Home: Japanese immigrant parents, emigrated to marriage, low-achieving assimilation and acceptance of American customs and traditions felt, toward parents in the Santa Clara Valley of California until emancipation. Father worked more to 70 acre vegetable farm, income obtained was just enough to get along, indicating a marginal, but self-sufficient standard independent of any outside assistance. Subject says his socialization was in the American tradition, distinction an absence of cultural conflicts between family members, received good home care, was well behaved and happy with his parents. Family view have always been good, reputable favorable, family according to subject loyal to this country. No history of delinquency is noted.

Subject: Born June 5, 1921 in San Jose, California, a normal, healthy child, reared in rural surroundings, no religious affiliation or training, was in the 12th grade at time of family's emancipation, completed his high school course at Heart Mountain. A good student, had no fear participation in boys' club activities because of duties on the farm, had no particular ambitions as a boy, early life apparently normal and unremarkable until his emancipation.

Occupational History: Subject attended the father on the farm until his emancipation, while at the Santa Anita Assembly Center he worked on summer jobs, at Heart Mountain as ordinary worker's helper. No prior career history indicated.

Military History: None. Registered with Local Board III, Santa Clara, Calif., current classification is 1-A.

Leisure Time and Habits: Active in sports, does generalized reading, goes to shows, lists taxidermy as a hobby, is fond of outdoor life, does not drink or smoke, moderately sociable in nature with an inclination to stay to himself.

Marital History: Single, has never married.

Own Home: Subject has always lived with the parents, assisted about the farm, contributed when employed. Has enjoyed a satisfactory standard of living.

Bona Fide Residence: San Jose, California.

Resources and References: None given.

Tentative Release Plans: Uncertain because of status as a person of Japanese extraction and unwillingness to enter military service at this time. Plans to return to family.
